

Contents

Introduction	7
Margit Warburg

Part I: Diachronic Perspectives

1. The Messianic Roots of Babi-Baha'i Globalism	17
Stephen Lambden
2. Globalization and the Hidden Words	35
Todd Lawson
3. Globalization and Religion in the Thought of 'Abdu'l-Baha	55
Juan R. I. Cole
4. The Globalization of the Baha'i Community: 1892-1921	77
Moojan Momen
5. The Baha'i Faith and Globalization 1900-1912	95
Robert Stockman
6. Iranian Nationalism and Baha'i Globalism in Iranian Polemic Literature	107
Fereyduun Vahman
7. Global Claims, Global Aims: An Analysis of Shoghi Effendi's The World Order of Bahá'u'lláh	119
Zaid Lundberg

8.	Baha'i and Ahmadiyya: Globalisation and Images of Modernity Morten Warmind	141
9.	The Dual Global Field: A Model for Transnational Religions and Globalisation Margit Warburg	153
Part II: Some Synchronic Themes
10.	Globalization and Decentralization: The Concept of Subsidiarity in the Baha'i Faith Wendi Momen	175
11.	The Globalization of Information: Baha'i Constructions of the Internet David Piff	195
12.	The Canadian Baha'is 1938 –2000: Constructions of Oneness in Personal And Collective Identity Lynn Echevarria	221
13.	Etching the Idea of 'Unity in Diversity' in the Baha'i Community: Popular Opinion and Organizing Principle Will van den Hoonaard	245
14.	Baha'i Meets Globalisation: A New Synergy? Sen McGlinn	269
15.	Baha'ism: Some Uncertainties about its Role as a Globalizing Religion Denis MacEoin	287
	Contributors	307